Datamar, Inc., announces its affiliation with veteran San Diego broadcaster Clark Anthony.

As Datamar expands its political polling services, Clark Anthony will represent the company as spokesperson for radio and television coverage of poll results.

Through his company, Clark Anthony Productions, he also voices the questions used in the automated telephone dialer surveys Datamar conducts nation wide.

Anthony spent more than thirty years in commercial broadcasting in San Diego, as radio personality, television weathercaster and TV news anchor. Currently, he hosts educational programs for the San Diego County Office of Education on ITV Cable16.
