Frye and Sanders Share a Commanding Lead in Crowded Field

City Council has Little Support

San Diego – Councilmembers Donna Frye, 41%, and Jerry Sanders, 34%, have a strong lead over the rest of the candidates in the race to be San Diego’s next Mayor. Pat Shea and Myke Shelby are tied with 4%, Steve Francis is following closely with 3%, Richard Rider has 1% and all other candidates with less than a percentage point. Sanders has made a huge jump in the polls since the early days of the campaign when our April poll showed him at less than 1%.

San Diego voters have a negative view of the direction the City of San Diego is heading with 49% of the voters thinking the City is heading in the wrong direction and only 20% think the city is heading in the right direction. Fifty eight percent of the voters do not approve of the job the City Council is doing with 14% approving.

City Direction

Individual Councilmembers fare better in their districts with only 3 councilmembers achieving a negative rating (negative rating equals approval rating minus disapproval rating) Those three councilmembers are Scott Peters, District 1, with -5 rating, Michael Zucchet, District 2, with a -49, Ralph Inzunza, District 8, with a -43. The two Councilmembers with the highest negative ratings are currently on trial on charges of corruption.

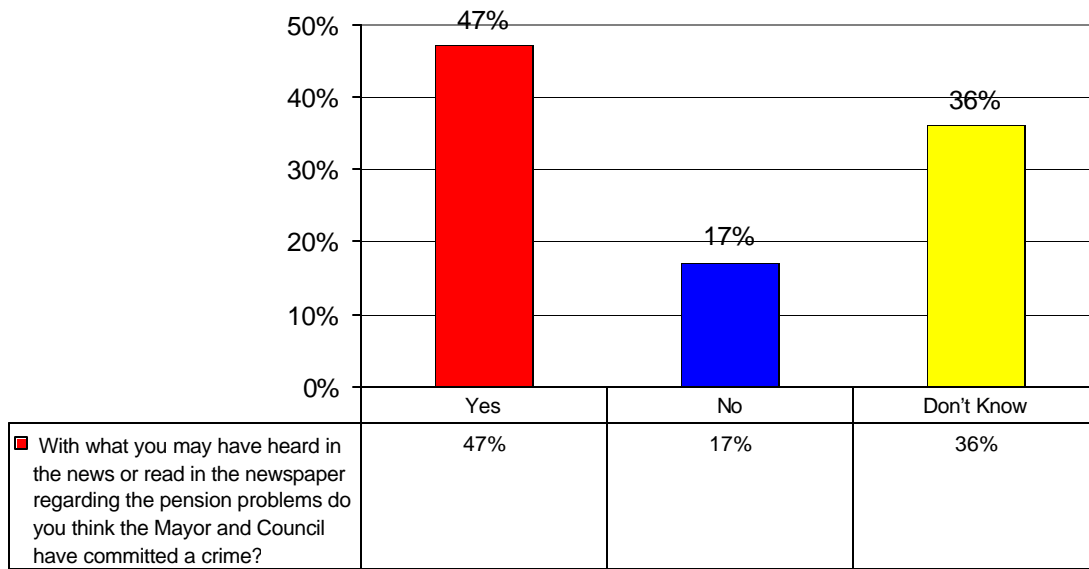

Approval Rating

The Councilmember with the highest rating is Brain Maienschein, District 5, with a 25 rating followed by Tony Young, District 4 18, Jim Madaffer, District 7, 16, Toni Atkins, District 3, 14, and Donna Frye, District 6, 13. Forty Eight Percent of voters approve of the job City Attorney Mike Aguirre is doing while only 29% disapprove which is an approval rating of 19.

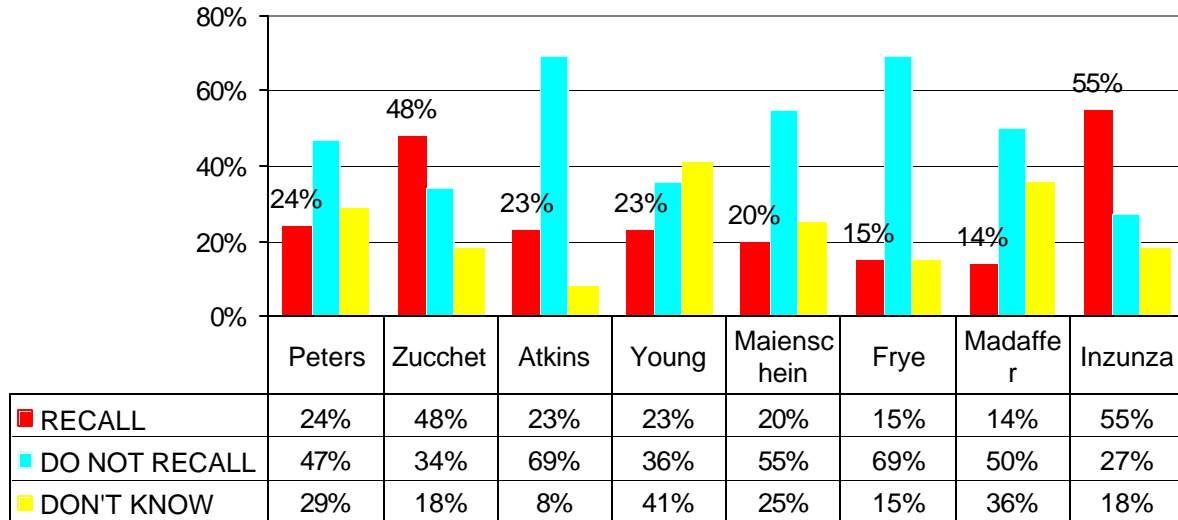

Forty Seven percent of San Diego voters think the Mayor and Council have committed a crime in regards to the pension scandal at City Hall while only 17% think they have not committed a crime. This perception that the council and mayor have committed a crime has led to some fairly strong numbers for voters wanting their councilmember to be recalled.

Have the Mayor and Council committed a crime?

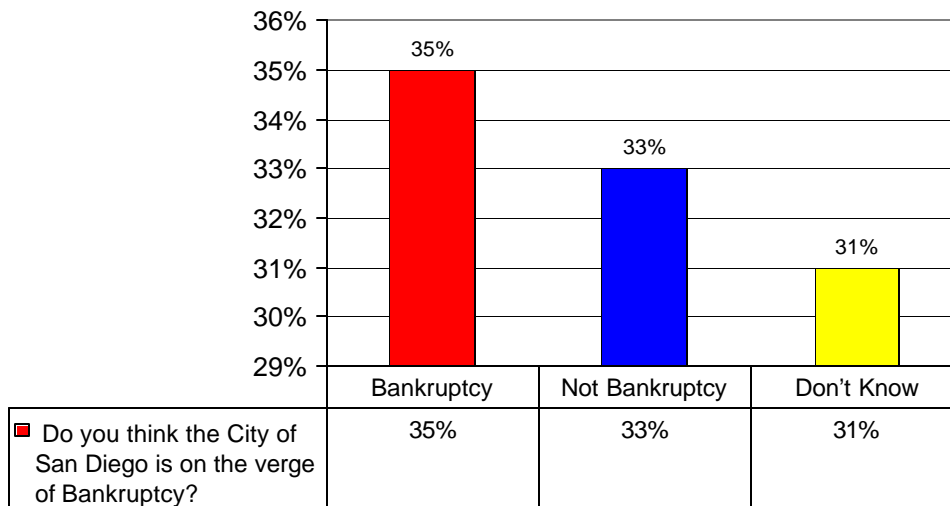

When asked do you think your councilmember should be recalled Inzunza and Zucchett had the highest percentage for recall with Inzunza at 55% and Zucchett at 48%. Scott Peters was third in the percentage wanting him recalled at 24% with Toni Atkins and Tony Young tied at 23%, Brian Maienschein following at 20%, Donna Frye at 15% and Jim Madaffer with the lowest percentage 14%.

City Council Recall

The voters are almost equally split among those who feel the city is heading towards bankruptcy, with 35% believing the city is on the verge of bankruptcy and 33% believing it is not with 31% undecided.
